

'COME AND SEE'

Welcomers

Why are volunteers needed?

Non-Catholics need to meet "regular" Catholics as they explore Catholicism in order to decide whether they want to become full members of the Catholic Church at St. Paul the Apostle Church.

Who can help?

Fully initiated Catholics. That means you've been baptized, confirmed and made your first Communion.

You're glad to be a practicing Catholic.

You'd like to help others make up their minds about becoming Catholic.

What can you do?

Attend weekly meetings with a group of non-Catholic inquirers:

- to listen sympathetically to their stories about what they're looking for,
- to talk about your experience as a Catholic and what you have found helpful for your daily life from being Catholic.

What's in it for you?

A chance to meet some interesting people.

Serious conversations about important life issues.

Opportunities to explore some "Catholic things" you've always wondered about.

A chance to play a significant role in the life-journey of someone new.

Our support groups for people being initiated into the Catholic Church meet year-round.
